Dear Senator Purtell:

Thank you for your letter of 14 January 1958 concerning
Major [redacted]

Major [redacted] did apply for a position with this Agency and his application was extensively reviewed last month. We appreciate the interest he has shown in our organization but due to budgetary considerations and the fact that we are attempting to reduce our personnel strength, our present recruitment for senior personnel is infrequent.

Major [redacted]'s file will, of course, be kept in an active status for periodic review against changes in our requirements. If an appropriate opening should develop, we will get in touch with him.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director

Dear Senator Purtell:

Thank you for your letter of 14 January 1958 concerning
Major [redacted]

Major [redacted] did apply for a position with this Agency and his application was extensively reviewed just last month.
Unfortunately, in view of our current personnel situation, we find that we do not have a position at this time which would be appropriate to his background and experience.

Your interest in bringing Major [redacted] to my attention is appreciated. In the event a suitable vacancy develops in the future, we will give him every consideration.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
